Court Occupancy Date Up In Air

No firm date was agreed upon for occupancy of the new Lake County courts building Thursday, during a special session of the Public Building Commission. Estimates ranged from March 1, to April 1, 1970.

The meeting had been called so that commission members could hear from representatives of Corbetta Construction Company, the general contractor, as to why the structure had not been completed on Nov. 1, according to a previous extension deadline. Corbetta general superintendent Roy A. Mueller said the company's projected deadline had been predicated on delivery and installation of five items. These include marble, stainless steel hand rails, stone, bronze perimeter wall, and plastering.

Mueller told the commission, "I am not here to make excuses. Corbetta has done its' best to alleviate the problems." He went on to say that delivery of marble has caused the greatest delay. A dock strike in New York tied up the original shipment for several weeks. Further, Mueller told commissioners, "We haven't received a single shipment without breakage and replacements are taking three to four weeks."

The superintendent projected completion of stone work in three to four weeks; and about the same time period for interior railings. He said, "If we get the materials we could turn over the building about January 1st. However, Mueller later asked the commission not to hold him to a firm date if marble shipments are held up again.

It was brought out that installation of carpeting and office equipment will take about two months following acceptance of the courts building before it could be occupied.

Commission chairman Taisto Aho asked the company representatives to expedite construction wherever possible and keep the commission informed as to progress.

After Corbetta representatives were excused, commissioners discussed the $250 per day penalty clause in the contract. It was brought out that only verbal extensions have been received. Commission attorney Andrew Semmelman said, "We had hoped there would have been something in writing before Nov. 1, to explain the delays in construction. We will have to wait for a recommendation from the architect on the number of days due on the extension and then it will be up to the commission to make a determination."

The original completion date on the courts building, or third phase of the Lake County courthouse complex, had been May 31, 1969. Later an extension was granted to November 1. One commissioner said after the meeting, "Considering the obstacles we really can't set a specific date, but to be realistic I'll say it will be closer to April 1 before we move in."

Estes Will Head Up Planning

The new director of the Lake County Regional Planning Department, effective December 1, is Gerald A. Estes, Jr. of Lake Forest. Estes is currently community planner with the department. He succeeds Norman Drummond who resigned November 1 to establish a private planning consulting service.

Estes is 32 years old and holds an M.S. degree in city and regional planning from IIT. He was awarded a B.S. in architecture from same school in 1961, having placed first in his class, and received the Scholastic Gold Medal which annually goes to the top architectural student in the state.

The new director had a variety of experience with private consulting firms and the City of Chicago before joining the Lake County planning department.

Red Cross To Again Send Voices To GIs

For a son, brother, father or husband who is a serviceman stationed away from home, the nicest Christmas present would be the voices of those he loves, says the American Red Cross.

Once again the American Red Cross is offering its "Voices from Home" Christmas project. Starting November 17, families are invited to make free recordings at the Lake County Regional Office at 308 Julian Street in Waukegan, Illinois.

Red Cross supplies the tape, recording facilities and the mailing envelope. The serviceman, in return, can make his own recording on the same tape and send it back to his loved ones.

The tapes are also available to families of Peace Corps members and visiting foreign students. Families are welcome to bring pets, musical instruments or even prepared skits.

For an appointment, call the Red Cross in Waukegan at ON 2-4044.

Hike Fluoride Count In Water, State Says

Antioch has been ordered by the State Department of Health to raise immediately its water fluoride count to comply with the Public Water Supply Control Law.

Village trustees Monday night learned of the state's order at its monthly meeting and on the advice of Village Attorney Edward Jacobs decided to check into the matter before taking further action.

The State Department of Health representatives visited Antioch late last month and in sampling water from the village's wells found it to contain 0.8 parts per million gallons or 0.1 part per million gallons short of meeting the requirement spelled out in the law.

Water Works Supt. Charles Maplethorpe told the village trustees that it would cost $1,100 to $1,200 to install the necessary equipment to inject an acid type fluorine into the water system to raise the fluoride content.

The state inspector found the village's water to be free of sanitary defects—in other words—the water is safe to drink despite the fluoride content.

Fluoride is reportedly a tooth decay preventive.

It was reported at the meeting that Fox Lake recently installed the equipment to raise its fluoride count to meet the state requirement, and that Lake Zurich was considering a similar move.

Inspection of Grayslake water supply showed it had a natural content to meet the state's minimum.

The trustees approved the request of Clerk Marilyn Sterbenz to prepare a budget in place of an appropriation ordinance possibly by February, 1971.

Mrs. Sterbenz reported she wanted a year to work on the budget preparation. She said a recent state law allowed the budget arrangement.

"It would give you a running account of the village's spending," said Village Attorney Jacobs. "It certainly is a more realistic approach."

Village Mayor Raymond Toft described the budget as "something nice" once it got off the ground.

"The first budget would be the most difficult to prepare," said Jacobs, "but each succeeding one would be easy."

Trustee Vern Barnstable who proposed Mrs. Sterbenz go ahead with the budget plan said, "You would know the status of village spending throughout the period."

Mrs. Sterbenz announced that the budget would have to be adopted before the start of the fiscal year in May.

The jolly old elf will arrive at 10:30 a.m. on Saturday, Nov. 29, in the village parking lot and set up shop in the Antioch Rescue Squad building.

All youngsters can visit him and receive candy canes and Christmas wishes.

Santa will arrive by helicopter and youngsters under the age of 12, accompanied by parents, can fill out blank forms to be distributed by merchants for a ride in the helicopter.

The names will be drawn after Santa's arrival and those lucky ones will be the ones to get the ride. Last year 300 were given rides.

The Antioch Chamber of Commerce, which is sponsoring the visit, also has completed plans for decorating Antioch for the Christmas season.

Ten-foot Balsam fir trees and Italian lights will decorate the street poles. Music will be broadcast throughout the holiday season in the past.

The Antioch High School Concert Band members are shown preparing for their fall band concert on Tuesday, Nov. 25. The concert will be held in the high school auditorium beginning at 7 p.m. This year's concert is dedicated to the band alumnus and there will be a social hour following the concert.

Vincent Quarta In Sheriff Race

Deputy Vincent Quarta has announced his candidacy for Republican Nomination for Sheriff of Lake County, in the March 17, Republican Primary Election.

Quarta began his police career twenty-six years ago in the Lake Forest Police Department under former Chief, Frank Tiffany, and during World War II was employed at the Great Lakes Naval Base.

A graduate of Lake Forest High School he attended the RCA Institute of Chicago - Radio Communications Divisions.

Quarta participated in three levels of Law Enforcement Officer Training Schools sponsored by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Illinois Association of Chiefs of Police, and the Illinois Police Association. He had a special course on Public Administration offered by Lake Forest College.

Quarta, 51, has been a life long resident of Lake Forest. In the past ten and a half years in the Department he has worked under three sheriffs, in several positions, and was encouraged by former deputies, co-workers, and local citizens to announce his candidacy for the Office of Sheriff.

It is his position that communication and understanding has broken down on the part of the Sheriff toward the men of the Lake County Sheriff's Department, and maintains that if elected steps will immediately be taken to firmly reestablish this basic relationship so fundamental to positive Law Enforcement.

An important part of Deputy Quarta's program he said, "will be to appoint officers in each division of the department on the basis of qualification, to dedicate his efforts toward improvement of working conditions, and to strive toward effective cooperation with the Office of the States Attorney, Lake County Police Departments, and other law enforcement agencies."

"The public must be assured that the Sheriff's Department considers their safety the paramount priority," said Quarta, "and I am ready and determined to carry out such a priority should the electorate give him the mandate."

A Serious Problem

The weather is beginning to get bad again and driving is becoming more hazardous.

We, once again, caution our readers to pay particular attention to their driving habits.

Illinois has a serious traffic safety problem.

Last year in our state there were approximately, 2500 traffic deaths.

Another 150,000 persons were injured.

Add to this some 338,000 property damage accidents and you come up with the staggering economic loss of more than half a billion dollars.

This trend must be reversed.

And only you, the motorist, can help bring it about.

So when you go driving pay attention to what you are doing.

And quoting that old cliché — The Life You Save May Be Your Own.

Social Ailment

The picture of violence and vandalism, rioting and looting has been spread across every newspaper in America, has been shown in detail on TV and has been reported extensively in magazines and by radio stations.

Somewhat the underlying thought behind all this publicity has indicated that these actions are being perpetrated by poverty-stricken people with no other recourse left open to them.

Studies are showing that in cities such as Washington, D.C., Detroit and others, most of the rioters and looters were in far from depressed economic circumstances. In fact, many of those arrested held good jobs.

Other evidence indicating that America's social troubles run far deeper and more ominous than poverty alone is shown in a recent article on shoplifting by Bill Davidson.

Here are a few of Mr. Davidson's findings: "Retailers lose from $1 billion to $3 billion annually to shoplifters and half of these thieves are teen-agers.

The typical teen-age shoplifter in the U.S. is a girl (girls outnumber boys by about 20 to 1 in this particular area of crime . . .) She is likely to be 16 years old and her father probably is a business or professional man earning $15,000 a year or more.

She gets a sizable allowance and has enough money to buy all she needs."

The article also stated: "The teen-age shoplifter does not think her particular form of theft is a crime, but rather a game. There is no moral understanding of right and wrong. At least part of the blame for this lies with parents.

As a former FBI agent says, "Children learn by example.

They see their mothers eating grapes in a supermarket without paying for them, or slipping sticks of butter into an oleomargarine carton before going to the check-out counter and they develop the philosophy that it's all right to steal from a big, rich organization because nobody will miss it.

Then they hear Daddy at home bragging about cheating his company on his expense account and the government on his income tax return.

They're taught from childhood that anything's OK, just so long as you don't get caught."

Many persons will see no connection between the article on shoplifting and the riots and looting in American cities.

But many should be able to see that Mr. Davidson's observations point to symptoms of a social ailment in the U.S. which has nothing to do with the existence of poverty.

authorized to John Teresi, automobile dealer, that the village will share the cost of a survey of property lines of the police department site which Teresi has purchased.

The survey cost was not included in the village's offer to sell the property.

The police department will be moved across the street into a new building now under construction by the village hall. The trustees authorized a partial payment of $18,394 to Benes Construction Co. which is doing the work.

Mrs. Sterbenz presented a six-month report on village funds. The general fund showed that $490,000 had been appropriated and that $127,625.13 had been expended leaving a balance of $127,625.13.

In the sewer and water fund, the trustees earmarked $390,457, with $91,962.82 spent reflecting a balance of $307,494.18 in the account.

The trustees approved the request of Police Chief Jack Davis to send one of his policemen to the Scuba Diving School which starts Nov. 28. Classes will be held in Round Lake and Antioch.

Cost will be $23 for the eight night course in addition to $24 to $30 for equipment.

The board approved the proposal of Trustee Barnstable to extend the sewer line south on Rte. 83 to the south line of the Faith Evangelical Lutheran Church.

Mayor Toft said the Illinois Underground Construction Co. has offered to do the work at a cost of $9.55 a running foot which he termed a good price under present costs.

"It is a real good price," the mayor said, "and we should take advantage of it because we won't get a second chance."

The cost to the village was estimated at $2,665 plus the installation of two manholes.

Payment of $9,900 was allowed the Gunite Concrete and Construction Co. of Kansas City, Mo., for the installation of a trickling filter at the sewage disposal plant.

Mrs. Sterbenz was allowed by trustees to borrow $9,000 from the bond reserve fund to pay the bill which is $1,000 short of final payment. The village withheld the final outlay until the area where the installation was made is cleaned up.

Mrs. Sterbenz also was authorized to cash in a $20,000 treasury bill to pay the partial payment allowed Benes Construction Co. for the police department project.

Trustees Barnstable, George Bartlett and Irv Walsh were appointed a committee to look into the possibility of constructing a skating pond to be used as a hockey ring on north shore of Lake Antioch off Hardin Street.

"Something should be done for young men and women who would want to participate in this sport," Mayor Toft said.

There was discussion by trustees of a contractor applying for a license to lay on Lake Street from Main Street to Rte. 173 and then never re-

County Board Action

Lake County's budget and appropriation, levy, and salary ordinance for fiscal 1969-70 was adopted with little discussion by the Board of Supervisors at a meeting. The new fiscal year begins Dec. 1.

Totalling $19,713,191 the appropriation is about $1,200,000 higher than last year's.

According to Board Finance committee chairman Supervisor Lloyd Murrie of Antioch Township, several factors were responsible for the increased budget.

They include: salary hikes for employees, an expanded public works program, the proposed five-story addition to the County Home, proposed hiring of two trial lawyers for the state's attorney's office, and the initial cost of ten vehicles for a county motor pool.

County Finance Director Robert Morrison said it isn't so much a matter of people demanding more service; rather, it is expansion of existing services to meet the growing volume of residents, who are entitled to the same quality of service.

Morrison says the overall levy, covering all county functions, elective and appointive offices, and institutions, totals .510 or 51c on each $100 of assessed valuation. That would amount to $51 on a home assessed at $10,000 or $3.20 more than the homeowner paid in taxes for all county services on his 1968 tax bill. Though the levy is up 6.69% (6¢ on each $100) Morrison emphasized this is the lowest increase in the past five years.

Board members had been studying copies of the appropriation and levy since it was presented Oct. 24. The only question raised concerning the budget had to do with the Cooperative Extension Service, a county supported branch of the University of Illinois; an increase in budget for the tuberculosis sanatorium; and anticipated reductions in manpower as a result of data processing.

County Board Chairman Robert W. Depke praised the finance committee for keeping the budget under $20-million. He said each committee chairman contributed by active participation in budgetary hearings. Benton Township Supervisor Kenneth Henke told the Board, "Passage of the budget does not relieve us of the responsibility to watch actual expenditures."

The levy for all county operations totals $7,469,655. The difference between what is budgeted turning to the project.

Jacobs said there is a possibility that there could be some damage complaints filed with the state and village which is sharing in the costs of the blacktopping of the street.

He pointed out some persons may complain that their carpeting or flooring had been damaged by tar which could have been brought on their property on the soles of customer's shoes.

To date there have been no complaints filed with the village clerk, it was announced.

It was said that the State awarded the bid for the blacktopping.

Goodwill Booths...

Two collection booths have been placed in the municipal parking lot on Broadway in Antioch. One box each is located at Al's Citgo Service Station, Route 83 and North Avenue; Jim's Standard Service Station, Routes 59 and 173; and Jim's Pure Oil Service Station, Routes 83 and 173.

The used materials put into the boxes by the public provide Goodwill's handicapped workers and trainees with "raw materials" on which they learn job skills as part of their vocational rehabilitation program, the objective of which is to convert them into wage earners capable of getting and holding steady jobs in the competitive labor market.

Once repaired and renovated, the materials are sold in Goodwill's retail stores. Sales of the "like new" merchandise provide the major source of wages for Goodwill's handicapped personnel.

A Goodwill spokesman urged householders not to leave large articles (furniture and major appliances) outside any of the booths. He emphasized the Goodwill trucks are not equipped to pick up such items at booths.

and what is collected in taxes is made up from: cash on hand at the end of the year, interest earned on invested monies, fee-earning offices, county collector's fee, and federal grants.

On the salary ordinance the only proposed change came from Supervisor Norman Geary of Avon Township who wanted to eliminate an appropriation of $12,500 for a museum director. However, his motion was defeated after appeals by assistant supervisors, Mrs. Betty Reed of West Deerfield Township and Mrs. Grace Mary Stern of Deerfield Township, both members of the Board's historical preservation committee.

In other action, the County Board passed a resolution to amend the job classification and salary evaluation system; enter into a contract with Norman Drummond to complete the Lake County community shelter plan for a maximum of $10,200 to be reimbursed by the federal government; pay a consultant to the regional planning commission $3,120 for work done to date on the natural resources study; and purchase a two-position control con-

High School Girls Seek National Title

High school senior girls here will join more than 600,000 others in over 15,000 schools throughout the country Tuesday, Dec. 2, in an only-one-of-its-kind examination. At stake in the written home-making knowledge and attitude test of the 16th annual Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow are $110,000 in college scholarships.

The girl scoring highest here will receive a specially designed silver charm from General Mills, sponsor of the homemaker education program, and her paper will be entered in competition with those of all other school winners in the state. From this, a state winner, who will be awarded a $1,500 scholarship, will be selected, as will a state runner-up, who will receive a $500 educational grant.

Next spring, first-place winners from the 50 states and the District of Columbia, each accompanied by a school advisor, will gather in Washington, D.C., for an expense-paid educational tour of that city and Colonial Williamsburg, Va. Climaxing the tour will be announced the 1970 Betty Crocker All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow and three runners-up. Chosen from the 51 state winners on the basis of original test score and personal observation and interviews during the tour, they will have their scholarships increased to $5,000, $4,000, $3,000 and $2,000, respectively.

The Betty Crocker Search, designed to emphasize the importance of homemaking as a career, is the only national scholarship program exclusively for high school senior girls. It has been placed on the approved list of national contests and activities of the National Association of Secondary-School Principals during each of its 16 years.

The examination to be administered Tuesday was prepared by Science Research Associates, Chicago educational testing organization which is also responsible for its scoring and the subsequent selection of local, state and national winners. Encyclopaedia Britannica, Inc., presents sets of Encyclopaedia Britannica to schools of state winners.

Waste Water Treatment Course Set

The College of Lake County announced a new community service program entitled "The Fundamentals of Waste Water Treatment."

The community need for this type of course was called to the attention of CLC by a college planning group composed of Mayor Warren Chard of Grayslake, William Koepsel of Thacker Engineering in Waukegan, and Bill Byers, Superintendent of the Lake County Public Works Department.

The course, which is primarily designed for waste water treatment plant operators and engineers, will start February 11, 1970 at 7-p.m. on the CLC campus and will be in session for 16 weeks.

A controversial zoning request over construction of a sewage treatment plant in Gurnee was defeated.

The petition sought a conditional use permit for land zoned agricultural in Warren Township, and had received a favorable recommendation from the zoning board of appeals and the Board's planning and zoning committee.

Formal objections to locating the tertiary treatment plant at the proposed site were filed by the Gurnee Chamber of Commerce, the Warren High School parents organization, and several individuals. The property, 65 acres of land, is located north of Washington Street and west of O'Plaine Road in the village.

A motion to delay action for one month, proposed by Waukegan Township Supervisor August Cepon, was defeated after Board Chairman Robert W. Depke stepped down from the chair to speak as supervisor of Warren Township. Depke told his fellow supervisors that a delay of one month wouldn't change anything; that the North Shore Sanitary District had made its study and picked the site and the people of Gurnee have studied it, discussed it, and decided they don't want the plant there.

Later, during debate on the petition, Depke stepped down again to speak for his constituents, many of whom had packed the board room gallery. He said, "There is plenty of land north and south of Gurnee which could be used for a treatment plant. The village has but one direction to grow, that is south, and the people do not want a sewage plant in the heart of town."

Depke cited Supervisor Cepon's position as president of the North Shore Sanitary District and called it a conflict of interest in so far as zoning matters relating to district-business is concerned. He told Cepon, "You are a good County Board member and a good sanitary district trustee but this is a conflict of interest."

The vote on the matter was 28-5 with one member voting "present."

Oak Park Ave. It is one of 22 similar orthopedic and burns treatment hospitals sponsored by the Shriners, in which more than half a million children have been treated without cost or regard to race or religion.

Andrews from Royal Oak, Mich., has been decorated with his first and second awards of the Distinguished Flying Cross (DFC), the Bronze Star Medal and his third through eighth awards of the Air Medal for service in Southeast Asia.

Colonel Andrews received the DFCs for extraordinary achievement as an F-4D Phantom fighter-bomber pilot. He earned his first DFC for action on Oct. 6, 1968, when despite adverse weather and antiaircraft fire, he destroyed a bridge, a river crossing and an enemy gun position.

His second DFC was for service on Oct. 23, 1968, when he flew protection for his flight leader on three low level passes against enemy gunsites.

The Colonel's Bronze Star Medal was for meritorious service while engaged in military operations at Ubon Royal Thai AFB, Thailand. He was cited for his outstanding duty performance as chief of the operations plans division for the 8th Tactical Fighter Wing.

Colonel Andrews was awarded the Air Medals for outstanding airmanship and courage on successful and important missions completed under hazardous conditions.

He was presented the medals during ceremonies at Ent AFB, Colo., where he is now serving as an operations staff officer with Headquarters, Aerospace Defense Command (ADC). ADC protects the U.S. against hostile aircraft and missiles.

Hans Brinker Next For PM&L Players

Hidden treasure, a mysterious gold watch, a skating race, and a father who's lost his memory are only a few of the ingredients in "Hans Brinker, or the Silver Skates," the children's play which PM&L will present on Dec. 6, 7, 13, and 14 at 2:30 p.m. at the PM&L Theatre, 877 Main St.

As dramatized by Tom Taggart, Mary Mapes Dodge's famous classic, written in 1865, becomes a timely play of thrilling adventures in picturesque Holland.

The story of the play is the story of the Brinker family -- of Hans and Gretel, of Dame Brinker and her husband, Raft, who lost his memory in a fall from the dykes. All the well-remembered episodes are there, including the story of the boy hero of Haarlem who held back the floods with his finger in the dyke.

The part of Hans will be played by Steven Patwell, Gretel by Kathy Walpole, Dame Brinker by Shirley Jensen, and Raft Brinker by Josef Hunley. Others in the cast are: Pam Hunley, Frank Rofek, Joanne Apostol, George Ramsay, John Cadwell, Bill Ser-shon, Sonia Slovensky, Joe Lisk, Wanda Springer, and Carol Zeman.

The play is being directed by Valerie Hunley, and she is confident that it is one of the most unusual productions in the growing list of PM&L's children's play successes. Tickets can be reserved by calling Ricky Apostol, 395-1217.

Cannon Says We May Lose Labor Force

"Our labor force is our most valuable asset, and we will lose it if we don't provide enough moderate, low cost housing."

Speaking on the weekly radio series "This Week in Lake County," Building and Zoning Officer Joseph Cannon said lack of public acceptance and localism have prevented builders from utilizing modern building concepts to any degree in this area. He hastened to point out that the county's building code, based upon the Building Officials Conference of American code, presently allows prefabricated, factory built, and modular types of construction.

Cannon said while the county has been progressive in investigating new concepts and updating its code, the municipalities have been dragging their feet.

Business Educators Hold Meet

"Business -- Tell It Like It Is" was the theme of the annual fall conference of the Illinois Business Education Association held November 6-8 at the Hotel St. Nicholas in Springfield. The program was an attempt to develop better business and education.

The program committee, headed by Kenneth Keeling of Morton East High School, Cicero, had asked businessmen to discuss some of the contemporary problem areas and to "tell it like it is."

Business teachers had the opportunity to participate in some frank discussions in which they gathered practical first-hand information and suggestions relative to training students.

Outstanding conference speakers included Letitia Baldrige, former White House social secretary for Mrs. John F. Kennedy; Dr. Harry Wellbank, national training director of Sears, Roebuck & Co.; Thomas S. Grier, Director of customer communications of the Burroughs Corporation; and Sydney J. Harris, columnist for the Chicago Daily News.

The IBEA president Jack Curless of Thornton Township High School and Junior College, Harvey, says that it is quite difficult to capture the excitement of a fall conference that draws together teachers seeking a common goal -- to be better teachers.

As at previous conferences, there was a wide array of commercial exhibits showing the latest in teaching supplies and equipment and an educational exhibit of teaching techniques.

Those attending the conference included Dora Beattie.

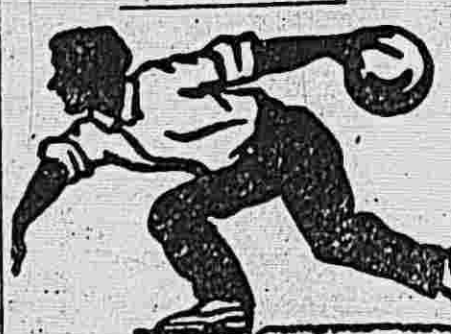

New Animal Law Does Not Apply

Lake County Rabies Inspector John H. Wawirka, D.V.M. says a recent press release regarding a new state law in confinement of animals does not apply in our county since the local ordinance is more stringent.

In a letter to all veterinarians, police departments and health departments in Lake County Dr. Wawirka said, "The recent amendment to the state rabies control law allowing owners of vaccinated animals to impound their dogs in their home does not apply in Lake County." Quoting Section 5 of the county dog ordinance Wawirka said, "Whenever any person has been bitten by a dog or other animal the rabies inspector shall have such animal confined in the custody of, and observed by, a licensed veterinarian."

Within 24 hours after the dog or other animal is confined, the vet shall report to the rabies inspector as required by Section 12 of the State rabies control act. Such dog shall be confined for a period of ten days and the rabies inspector notified as to the final disposition of said animal."

Dr. Wawirka said there have been many phone calls to his office since the article on the State amendment appeared in local papers last week and wanted to clarify the fact that the Lake County ordinance still stands.

If your child can say "emergency" teach him to say it to the Operator.

Dialing Zero for help in an emergency is so simple a child can do it. And so important, every child should learn how.

Here are three hints to help you teach your child how to get help if he ever needs it:

First, don't hand him the receiver. Let him pick it up himself, the way he would in a real emergency.

Second, while you hold down the receiver button, teach him how to dial the Operator.

Third, tell him to speak directly into the mouthpiece, clearly and slowly, giving his name, address, and phone number. This part is most important so it might be a good idea to phone a friend so they can listen to your child repeat his message.

We feel it's important for your child to know how to get help from the Operator when he needs it.

And we hope he never needs it. Illinois Bell

McHenry Sequoit Target

The 1969-70 basketball season will officially open on Saturday evening, Nov. 22. The Antioch Sequoits will travel to McHenry with the Sophomore game starting at 6:45.

The 1969-70 varsity squad is as follows:

Uniform	Name	Ht.	Wt.	Yr.
12-13	Wayne Simon	5'9"	140	Sr.
14-15	Marty Romaine	5'10"	140	Jr.
20-21	Jim Weiss	5'10"	135	Sr.
22-23	Steve Bentel	6'0"	145	Jr.
24-25	Jeff Sterbenz	6'1"	170	Sr.
30-31	Bill Martin	5'11"	150	Jr.
32-33	Tom Martin	6'1"	165	Jr.
34-35	Scott Johnson	6'0"	140	Jr.
40-41	Keith Bolton	6'6"	165	Jr.

12-13 Tom Effinger 6'1 155 Jr.
44-45 Ray Braden 6'1 165 Jr.
50-51 Jim Polley 6'3 185 Sr.

Varsity managers — John Schremser, Steve Bonner.
The squad has two returning lettermen, regular, Keith Bolton, a junior. Keith was awarded honorable mention all-conference last year as he was third in conference scoring and one of the top rebounders in the league. The other returning letterman is Jim Weiss, a spark plug and play maker, a very good guard.

Jeff Sterbenz, Jim Polley and Wayne Simon, all seniors will add to the strength of the squad. Jeff is a fine rebounder, quick, with some fine offensive moves, while Jim Polley is real strong on the boards, shoots well from the pivot area, and Wayne Simon is a hustling, playmaker guard. Up from a fledgling Sophomore team are seven juniors, their record last season was 15-9. Two boys, Tom Martin and transfer student Ray Braden will operate as center or forward. Tom is an excellent team man offensively and is one of our better defensive players. He has the inside track on starting because of his defense, he rebounds well too. Ray is going to fit in real well, very strong rebounder and a fine shooter, makes the outlet pass on the fast break real well too. Also helping out at forward will be Scott Johnson, a steady player with a great deal of desire.

Steve Bentel and Tom Effinger will operate either at forward or guard, these boys have very good moves, can rebound and shoot. Steve has the quickness to get the nod for one probable starting guard spot.

At the guards, will be Marty Romaine and Bill Martin. Marty is probably the best outside shooter on the squad, and has very good speed. Due to surgery on a knee in October, Marty is operating at about 75 per cent capacity, but very soon should be completely well and will be great value to the team. Bill is a fine driver and makes some excellent moves near the basket.

The outlook for the season is encouraging, with an excellent big man in Keith Bolton and a squad that wants to play and plays together. The squad has eight juniors, and the team lacks experience. Stated Coach Andrews, "we may get a slow start, but by mid-season and at tournament time, we should be real tough." "There is real competition on the squad, with good depth and lots of hustle, all good characteristics for a fine team."

In the conference, Lake Forest and Warren look like the teams to beat, as they each have six lettermen returning and four were regulars. Grant is a dark horse with three regulars returning, but DON'T count the Sequoits out. Jim Weiss will be game Captain for the McHenry opener.

Scrimmage Finds White Best

On Thursday evening, Nov. 13 the varsity basketball team staged an inter-squad basketball game with the players parents as guests.

The program started at 7:00 p.m. with Coach Andrews explaining the training rules and what is expected of a varsity player.

Then Mr. Blecke, a basketball official explained a few rule changes, plus he covered the questioned charging - blocking foul.

This was followed by the scrimmage game. Six players were placed on each team. The White team won 67 to 74. The box score is as follows:

Red Team	fg	ft	tp
Wayne Simon	3	1	7
Marty Romaine	6	7	19
Jeff Sterbenz	5	2	12
Tom Effinger	2	3	7

Coast Guard Reveals Major Loss Causes

Coast Guard statistics for the last few years have shown that the major causes for the loss of life, limb, and property have been, and continue to be, collisions, capsizings, and fires or explosions.

Every Coast Guard statistical report, published annually since 1959, has shown that vessel capsizings account for more of the lives lost in boating accidents each year than any other type of casualty. The majority of the capsizings are attributed to some fault of the operator in the handling of his vessel.

In most cases when a boat capsizes, the occupants should stay with the overturned boat. Alleged good swimmers attempting to swim to safety have succumbed within a short distance from shore, when if they had stayed with the boat would have remained afloat and been more easily located by a search plane or boat. Above all, one Coast Guard approved lifesaving device for each person on board including skiers is essential.

Life vest or preservers should be worn by all occupants when conditions are hazardous, and by children and non-swimmers at all times. In most drowning cases, cushions, vests, or preservers were in the boat, but not utilized.

Using good judgment and avoiding panic prevent the serious consequences of a boat capsizing. Most important, however, to remember is that lifesaving devices are of no benefit if they are not used.

About half of the vessels reported in accidents were involved in collisions. These collisions accounted for most of the personal injuries to boaters. Failure to keep a forward lookout stands out as the principal cause of collisions between vessels and collisions with fixed objects. The increasing popularity of water skiing has contributed heavily to this safety problem.

There is no measure of the effectiveness of rearview mirrors and competent observers in water-ski boats. As a matter of fact, many states require that there be a competent observer on board every boat towing a water skier. It is clear, however, that training and common sense would stress the importance of operator alertness, watching where he is going, reducing speed in restricted and congested areas, observing local boating traffic patterns, and making early and positive course and speed changes.

Titans Are Champs In Football

The Titans were able to come back and down the Panthers in a hard fought game, 20 to 13. The Panthers were the surprise team of the playoffs, as they advanced to the finals by beating the Indians, Badgers and Hazards. The Titans who had dominated intramural action had all they could handle from the pesky Panthers.

The first half was dominated by strong defense by both teams. The Panthers used their ball control and spot passing to control the first half, but were unable to penetrate the Titans goal line. The Titans used their explosive running attack to draw first blood, and to hold a 6-0 half-time lead. Midway through the first half, McAlister raced around end and 75 yards to pay dirt. The P.A.T. failed and this was the extent of the scoring in the first half. (continued on page seven)

The squads looked good on team play, rebounding, hustle, movement of the ball. "Their free throw shooting was very good too this early in the season," stated Coach Andrews. We need some work on defense and must learn our out-of-bounds plays. We still have a week to get ready for our first game with McHenry. At half-time the parents were served refreshments by Judy Meure and Ainsley Brook.

What makes the electric self-cleaning oven so cool?

It's a six-sided story.

Insulation is the secret. Only the electric self-cleaning oven is insulated on all six sides. So the heat stays inside. Your kitchen stays cooler, whether the oven is baking a cake, or cleaning itself. And because heat and moisture stay in, meats come out juicier; cakes more moist. Baking or broiling is faster, too, because less pre-heating is needed. But the electric self-cleaning oven story doesn't stop at six-sided insulation. The electric kind is also more thorough. Why, it even cleans its own broiler! Cool kitchens have an electric self-cleaning oven. How about yours? Commonwealth Edison Company. The bright new ideas are Electric.

Titans Are ...

With a couple of minutes gone in the second half, the Panthers received a break when Glover intercepted his second pass of the game and returned deep into Titanland. The Panthers used their running attack to grind out their first score. The drive was concluded when Plants blasted 4 yds. Capt. Plants also added the P.A.T. which gave the Panthers a slim 7-6 lead.

The Titans received the next big break which turned out to be a turning point in the championship contest. With third down and long yardage, McAllister passed to Paddock, who was well covered by two Panthers defenders, it looked like the two defenders had broken up the pass. But the ball dropped right into the arms of another Titan, Smith, who raced unmolested into the end zone.

Plants scored his second T.D. on a 5 yard run which tied the score at 13 all. On the try for the P.A.T., Paddock stopped the Panthers ball-carrier a yard short of the goal line and with less than three minutes remaining the score was still tied at 13-13.

The Titans took the kick-off and returned it deep into Panther territory. The Titans with the aid of unopposed manlike penalty moved the ball inside the 10 yard line. With less than two minutes remaining, McAllister spotted Paddock in the end zone and hit him with a 7 yard pass, which proved to be the margin of victory. The Titans had a 20 to 13 lead. Time ran out before the Panthers could get another drive underway and the Titans had won the intramural championship by a 20 to 13 count.

The play covered 47 yards and the P.A.T. was converted by McAllister.

With seven minutes remaining, the Titans held a 13 to 7 advantage. The Panthers took the ensuing kick-off and marched downfield behind their powerful running attack of Plants, Ketterhagen, Glover, while the offensive line of Underhill, Bohat, Walsh, Mike Terry were opening huge holes for the runners.

Plants scored his second T.D. on a 5 yard run which tied the score at 13 all. On the try for the P.A.T., Paddock stopped the Panthers ball-carrier a yard short of the goal line and with less than three minutes remaining the score was still tied at 13-13.

Driving In Fog Very Hazardous

The best advice that the Lake County Safety Commission can give on driving in fog is—don't. Never start a trip—not even to the nearest drugstore—in your car during a visibility-zero situation unless the trip is a real emergency. Most fogs are short-lived. Always wait one out if you can.

If, like nearly all other drivers sooner or later, you get caught in a fog, protect yourself these ways:
• Reduce your speed drastically, all the way to zero if necessary.

• If you can still see the road well, proceed cautiously and keep your headlights on LOW beam. This will light the highway immediately in front of you and cause less trouble for oncoming cars.

• Watch the right side of the road, not the lane marker or centerline on your left. This will prevent you from accidentally drifting to the left and getting into the wrong lane without realizing it.

Although you must keep reducing your speed as the fog thickens, it's best never to turn slower than 40 mph on a turnpike or freeway. If the fog becomes really dense—no matter where you are—pull off at the first exit and stop in a parking area. The best maneuver against fog says the Safety Commission, is a delaying action. Fog is nothing but a cloud that will eventually lift and look pretty in the sunlight.
